

Aros Bostad starts the sales of a new terraced housing project in Upplands-Bro

Aros Bostadsutveckling AB publ ("Aros Bostad") starts the sales of new terraced houses in the development project Slottsparken, which is part of the new city district Bro-Mälärstad. The project, which is Aros Bostad's first development within the municipality of Upplands-Bro, will comprise 39 new terraced houses to be sold as tenant-ownerships. The residential are beautifully located close to Bro Hofs slott's golf courses and within walking distance from Mälaren.

Louise Saxholm, Sales and Marketing Director, Aros Bostad:

"We see a continued large interest for terraced and detached houses in most part of the Greater Stockholm area, which goes for Upplands-Bro as well. Thanks to effective production methods and thought-through architecture, we have managed to create terraced houses with great quality for the price."
