

Besqab's CFO is leaving for a new role outside the group

Anna Jepson will leave the role of CFO for Besqab AB (publ) ("Besqab") in November 2024 for a new role outside the group. Recruitment of a new CFO will commence.

Anna Jepson, who has been employed as CFO in Besqab since September 2023, will leave Besqab for a new position outside the group. Jepson will continue her work with the ongoing company integration, after the merger between Besqab and Aros Bostadsutveckling, until November 2024. Besqab is now starting the recruitment process of a new CFO.

Magnus Andersson, CEO Besqab says:

"It is always sad when a talented employee leaves the company, but I wish Anna the best of luck with her new assignment. She will continue to work with the ongoing company integration for another six months, giving us plenty of time to recruit a successor to the role of CFO. We have embarked on an exciting journey, with the aim of becoming a leading residential housing developer in Greater Stockholm and Uppsala."

Anna Jepson, CFO Besqab says:

"The new Besqab that is taking shape is a fantastic company, with solid competence and knowledgeable employees. I feel a continued great commitment to pushing the work forward during the coming six months and preparing the best possible handover to my successor."
